

The Beatitudes

By Kristiana & Katie

Definition

A beatitude is a guideline in which we should mold our lives around.

The fourth beatitude is: “Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.” Matthew 5: 3-12

The translation: this means that the people who do the right thing even when its difficult will be filled with God’s love and light.

Example

St. Augustine

354 AD • 430 AD

Desire

- Augustine wanted to find purpose within his life
 - Through lots of searching and struggle he found God
 - After this he dedicated his life to Gods plan for humanity

Challenge

-Challenge-

He spent most of his time trying to be the richest man in Rome and struggled all his life to find purpose and meaning.

He left searching for riches and found a spiritual life.
